WILL IMPROVE

Their Train Service to and From Wheeling, Says Mr. Greene,

GENERAL MANAGER OF B. & O.

A Morning Train to Pittsburgh, for the convenience of Shoppers, is One of the Improvements About Decided On—Chair Cars will be Run on the New Train—An Improvement Between Wheeling and Benwood Being Agitated.

General Manager William H. Greene, of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, was in Wheeling yesterday for a few hours, and was in conference with local officials and inspected the scene of the late disaster at the mouth of Wheeling creek and at Grave creek, in the upper part of Moundsville. He also found time to confer with representatives of the chamber of commerce, who are anxious to secure for Wheeling better passenger train service out of and into the city.

Although the gentlemen interested decline to discuss any semi-official agreement that was arrived at, yet the intelligence is able to state on good authority that there is approaching an era of good fellowship between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad on one side and the city of Wheeling on the other. Mr. Greene is favorably disposed to Wheeling and is said to have promised certain needed reforms in the near future, one of which is a better passenger terminal than that which now disgraces the company's here. It is said the recent damage inflicted at the passenger station will be the moving cause of a better passenger station in the immediate future.

Another improvement said to have been determined upon is the building of a new bridge over the Ohio river, and Ohio management is an improved service between Wheeling and Benwood, so that the four miles between the two places will be made in less than forty minutes. The traveling public will have an improvement in this direction with delight. Still another improvement is better train service between Wheeling and Pittsburgh. It is whispered that the schedule will be so arranged that there will be a train out of Wheeling with a chair car, particularly for Wheeling shoppers in Pittsburgh, and that returning from Pittsburgh there will be a train leaving the Smoky City about 6 p. m.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

A watermelon social will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association building this evening. The usual Sunday afternoon meeting will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock.

The recent rains have stopped all railroad traffic between Bellaire and Powhatan, on the Ohio side. It will be perhaps the middle of next week before repairs are made and traffic resumed.

Rev. W. H. Hayden, who has been visiting his mother and Dr. Hayden, his brother, at Salem, Ohio, for ten days, will fill his pulpit at the First Christian church to-morrow morning and evening. Messrs. Asst. Fair and Frank Hallack will leave Monday for a fortnight's tour through Ohio on their wheels. They will go as far as Canton by rail and will then wheel to Youngstown and Cleveland and back to Wheeling.

Miss Ethel Bender, daughter of Mr. C. H. Bender, of Barnesville, died at her home yesterday. She is a niece of Councilman Ed. Bender, of this city, and had a large circle of friends here, who will be pained to learn of her death.

At Wheeling Park on Sunday afternoon the Opera House brass band will give a concert in the afternoon in the place of the usual orchestral music. It is possible some of the members of the Lyric opera company, which opens two weeks' engagement at the park casino Monday, will be here Sunday. If so, there will be solos by some of the company Sunday afternoon. There will no doubt be a large crowd at the park.

Dr. John W. Simpson, ex-president of Marietta College, will preach morning and evening to-morrow at the First Presbyterian church. His subject in the morning will be "The secret of a useful and happy life." In the evening his topic will be "Every man must stand alone in the critical periods of his life." Dr. Simpson is an extemporaneous speaker of rare ability, a logical and forcible reasoner. The Presbyterians are to be congratulated for having secured him for the day.

Miss Clara and Amelia Roth, of Pittsburgh, are guests of Miss Carrie Miller. C. L. Smick, of Waverly, a wealthy well operator, was at the Howell yesterday.

J. E. Hurford, of Pittsburgh, of the Pennsylvania Salt Company, is at the McClure.

Basel T. Howers, a lawyer from New Martinsville, was at the Stamm House yesterday.

G. B. Furler, of Alma, W. Va., a well known merchant, is among the arrivals at the Stamm.

A. A. Rowe, a prominent oil man, from Pittsburgh, registered at the McClure yesterday.

G. B. Furler, of Alma, W. Va., a well known merchant, is among the arrivals at the Stamm.

J. H. Evans, Pittsburgh, and Warren McCarty, of Baltimore, are among the oil men at the Windsor.

Mr. Dr. J. Y. Hill, of the Island, leaves this morning for a few weeks' visit with friends near Sistersville.

Misses Maud Criswell and Nettie Convey, of Moundsville, were guests of Wheeling friends yesterday.

Among the West Virginians at the McClure are: T. M. Jackson, J. P. Allen, W. S. Watson, of Clarksburg.

Mr. Fred H. Appenzeller, of the Island, returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends at Clarksburg.

Mrs. Charles Truman and sister, Miss Florence McConnell, of Wheeling, are visiting relatives at Dunkirk, N. Y.

Misses Martha and Anna Hall, of Wellburg, will shortly be the guests of Mrs. Brady Morgan, South Broadway, Island.

Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Burdette have returned from their bridal trip to the seashore and on the great lakes, and are at home on Sixteenth street.

Senator William H. Finn, president of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, and A. C. Robertson, A. R. Daily, Jr., William J. Diehl, all of Pittsburgh, are at the Stamm House.

To Elm Grove. In order to accommodate the large crowd that will attend the blessing of the Bell of the Catholic church, to-morrow afternoon, the motor line will run extra cars from 1 to 2 p. m. Right Rev. Bishop Donahue will deliver a special address.

Your Choice of Five Trains to Atlantic City via Baltimore & Ohio. July 16 and 30 Pullman sleepers to Philadelphia on the 12:25 a. m. train via Grafton, and 5:15 p. m. via Pittsburgh.

MR. WATTS LEADS

In the Contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination—Has a Majority of One Over All Others.

Mr. Watts has made gains since the Intelligence last printed its ante-convention ballot for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Ritchie county's full strength goes to the Kanawha man on instructions. Braxton county, that was given to Judge Bennett has been changed to Colonel Smith on account of the withdrawal of Bennett. Mr. Watts has a bare majority of all the votes sent in up to date. The figures are:
